

U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 09/771,878

2. (Amended) A container for packaging food characterized in that the container has a surface portion made of plastic sheet, at least one vent hole being formed in the surface portion, the vent hole being sealed by an adhesive hole-sealing sheet comprised of a styrene butadiene-based rubber and acryl-based rubber with a rosin-based or petroleum resin-based material so as to possess both pressure sensitive and thermo sensitive properties, and having a vertical peeling strength no less than 1 N/cm in the temperature range of 40°C or lower and no higher than 0.1 N/cm at the temperature range of 80°C or higher.